CONSENT FOR TREATMENT AND AUTHORIZATION

I, the undersigned, do hereby authorize and consent to medical examinations, x-rays, blood tests, laboratory procedures, immunizations, therapeutic injections, invasive or surgical procedures and other medically appropriate services under the general or specific supervision of any member of the medical staff of Genesis Healthcare, Inc for the patient named on this form.

It is understood that this authorization is given in advance of any specified diagnosis, treatment or care being required but it is given to provide authority and power to render care by providers of Genesis Healthcare, Inc. in the exercise of her/his best judgment that they may deem advisable. I understand that state law requires physicians to report certain communicable diseases to the Health Department. SC Code Ann. Sec 44-29-10. Regulation 61-20.

I agree that if I leave a physician's office against the advice of my physician(s) of Genesis Healthcare, Inc and its personnel, they are released from responsibility or liability for any injuries or damages which may result from leaving against medical advice. I authorize a physician of Genesis Healthcare, Inc to test me for HIV antibodies or tuberculosis when the doctor or any employees are exposed to body fluids in a manner which may transmit human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), or infection of tuberculosis. In the event of such an exposure, you will be deemed to have consented to such testing, and to have consented to the release of the test results to the person(s) who may have been exposed.

OUR LEGAL DUTY

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your medical information. We are also required to give you this notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your medical information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in this notice while it is in effect. This notice takes effect 04/14/2003 and will remain in effect until we replace it. We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by applicable law. We reserve the right to make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our notice effective for all medical information that we maintain, including medical information we created or received before we made the changes. Before we make a significant change in our privacy practices, we will change this notice and make the new notice available upon request.

WHO WILL FOLLOW THIS NOTICE

This notice describes our facility's practices and those participants listed below in our organized health care arrangement. As such, we may share your medical information with each other as needed for treatment, payment or health care operations relating to our organized health care arrangement.

This notice does not imply any joint venture or any other special association or legal relationship between the facility and its medical staff. This notice is an administrative tool permitted by federal law allowing the facility and medical staff to tell you about common privacy practices.

Along with the facility, the following participate in our organized health care arrangement:

- Members of our medical staff and their employees or workforce who provide services or support to the physician at the facility.
- Our employed physicians and their office staff.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF CERTAIN TYPES OF MEDICAL INFORMATION

For certain types of medical information, we may be required to protect your privacy in ways stricter than we have discussed in this notice. We must abide by the following rules for our use or disclosure of certain types of your medical information for purposes of use or disclosure of your medical information:

Sexually Transmitted Disease Information: We may not disclose HIV information unless required by law, pursuant to an authorization or the disclosure is to you or your personal representative; or, to medical personnel to the extent necessary to protect the health or life of any person. SC Code Ann. 44-29-135(d)

Genetic Information: We may only disclose your genetic information to for the following purposes: as necessary for the purpose of a criminal or death investigation, or a criminal or judicial proceeding or inquest, or a child fatality review; pursuant to court order; to law enforcement or government agency for purpose of identifying a person under appropriate circumstances or a dead body; or to other persons as may be required by law. SC Code Ann. Sec 38-93-40

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Information: We may not disclose your medical information that contains alcohol and drug abuse information except to you, your personal representative or pursuant to an authorization or as may otherwise be allowed by law. SC Code Ann. 44-22-100

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF MEDICAL INFORMATION

We use and disclose medical information about you for treatment, payment, and health care operations. For example:

Treatment: We may use or disclose your medical information to a physician or other health care provider within our clinics to provide treatment to you. We may use or disclose medical information to specialists or other health care providers to whom you have been referred.

Payment: We may use and disclose your medical information to obtain payment for services we provide to you. We may disclose your medical information to another health care provider or entity subject to the federal and state Privacy Rules so they can obtain payment.

Health Care Operations: We may use and disclose your medical information in connection with our health care operations. These uses are necessary to make sure that all our patients receive quality care.

Some examples are:

- Review of our treatment or services to evaluate the performance of our staff providing your care.
- Sending you a satisfaction survey.
- Review of information about many of our patients to determine if additional services should be added or perhaps are no longer needed.
- Information may be given to our doctors, nurses, medical and health care students, and other personnel to be used for education and learning purposes.
- We may remove information that identifies you from the medical information so others may use it for studies in health care delivery without learning who the patients are; and
- We may disclose your medical information to another provider who has a relationship with you and is subject to the same Privacy rules, for their health care operation purposes.

On Your Authorization: You may give us written authorization to use your medical information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us an authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect. Unless you give us a written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your medical information for any reason except those described in this notice.

Appointment Reminders: We may use and disclose medical information to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for treatment or medical care at the facility.

To Your Family and Friends: With your permission, we may disclose your medical information to a family member, friend, or other person to the extent necessary to help with your health care or with payment for your health care. If you are not present, or in the event of your incapacity or an emergency, we will disclose your medical information based on our professional judgment of whether the disclosure would be in your best interest.

We will also use our professional judgment and our experience with common practice to allow a person to pick up filled prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays, or other similar forms of medical information.

By Law or Special Circumstances: We may use or disclose your medical information as authorized by law for the following purposes deemed to be in the public interest or benefit:

- As required by law.
- For public health activities, including disease and vital statistic reporting, child abuse reporting, FDA oversight, and to employers regarding work-related illness or injury.
- To report adult abuse, neglect, or domestic violence.
- To health oversight agencies.
- In response to court and administrative orders and other lawful processes.
- To law enforcement officials after receiving subpoenas and other lawful processes, concerning crime victims, suspicious deaths, crimes on our premises, reporting crimes in emergencies, and for purposes of identifying or locating a suspect or other person.
- To coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors.
- To organ procurement organizations.
- To avert a serious threat to health or safety.
- In connection with certain research activities.
- To the military and to federal officials for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence, and national security activities.
- To correctional institutions regarding inmates.

Health-Related Benefits and Services: We may use your medical information to contact you with information about health-related benefits and services or about treatment alternatives that may be of interest to you. We may disclose your medical information to a business associate to assist us in these activities. We may use or disclose your medical information to encourage you to purchase or use a product or service by face-to-face communication or to provide you with promotional gifts.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

Right to Inspect and Copy: You have the right to look at or get copies of your medical information, with limited exceptions. You must make a request in writing to obtain access to your medical information. You may obtain a form to request access by using the contact information listed at the end of this notice. You may also request access by sending us a letter to the address at the end of this notice. As permissible by South Carolina Law, if you request copies, we will charge you a fee for copying and postage if you want the copies mailed to you. Contact us using the information listed at the end of this notice for a full explanation of our fee structure. SC Code Ann. Sec. 44-115-80

We may deny your request to inspect and copy in very limited circumstances as allowed by law. If you are denied access to your medical information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. Another licensed health care professional chosen by the facility will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.

Disclosure Accounting: You have the right to receive a list of instances in which we or our business associates disclosed your medical information for purposes other than treatment, payment, health care operations, as authorized by you, and for certain other activities, since April 14, 2003. You must make a request in writing to request a listing of disclosures. You may obtain a form to request the accounting by using the contact information at the end of this notice. If you request this accounting more than once in a 12-month period, we may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for responding to these additional requests. Contact us using the information listed at the end of this notice for a full explanation of our fee structure.

Restriction: You have the right to request that we place certain restrictions on our use or disclosure of your medical information. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except in an emergency). Any agreement to additional restrictions must be in writing. You may obtain a form to request additional restrictions on the use or disclosure of your medical information by using the contact information listed at the end of this notice. We will not be bound to the restrictions unless our agreement is signed by you and the appropriate facility representative.

Confidential Communication: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your medical information by alternative means or to alternative locations. For example, you might request that we contact you at work or by mail. You must make your request in writing. You may obtain a form to request alternative communications by using the contact information listed at the end of this notice. We must accommodate your request if it is reasonable, specifies the alternative means or location, and provides satisfactory explanation how payments will be handled under the alternative means or location you request.

Amendment: If you feel that medical information, we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. Your request must be in writing, and it must explain why the information should be amended. You may obtain a form to request an amendment by using the contact information listed at the end of this notice. We may deny your request if we did not create the information, you want amended and the individual who provided the information remains available or for certain other reasons. If we deny your request, we will provide you a written explanation. You may respond with a statement of disagreement to be attached to the information you wanted amended. If we accept your request to amend the information, we will make reasonable efforts to inform others, including people you name, of the amendment and to include the changes in any future disclosures of that information.

Electronic Notice: If you receive this notice on our website or by electronic mail (e-mail), you are entitled to receive this notice in written form. Please contact us using the information listed at the end of this notice to obtain this notice in written form.

If you want more information about our privacy practices or have questions or concerns, please contact Genesis Healthcare Inc. using the information listed at the end of this notice.

If you are concerned that we may have violated your privacy rights, or you disagree with a decision we made about access to your medical information or in response to a request you made to amend or restrict the use or disclosure of your medical information or to have us communicate with you by alternative means or at alternative locations, you may notify us of your concerns by using the contact information listed at the end of this notice. You also may submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with the address to file your complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services upon request. We support your right to the privacy of your medical information. We will not retaliate in any way if you choose to file a complaint with us or with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
